

THE AMERICAN RODEO CONTENDER TOURNAMENT

QUALIFICATION PROCEDURES, RULES OF ADVANCEMENT AND POTENTIAL PAYOUTS

1. CATEGORIES OF COMPETITORS

- 1.1. The American Rodeo and the Contender Tournament include the following three (3) categories of athletes eligible to compete in and win prizes/awards subject to the parameters stated herein:
 - 1.1.1. Contender Athlete
 - 1.1.1.1. An athlete that has earned a position into The American Rodeo by advancing through the Contender Tournament
 - 1.1.1.2. Contender Athletes are eligible for the Contender Bonus subject to parameters found in Section 6.
 - 1.1.2. Invited Contender Athletes
 - 1.1.2.1. PRCA/WPRA 6-20:
 - 1.1.2.1.1. An athlete that finished 6th – 20th in the immediately preceding year's final Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) World Standings in the Bareback Riding, Saddle Bronc Riding, Bull Riding, Steer Wrestling, Team Roping (Heading & Heeling) and Tie-Down Roping
 - 1.1.2.1.2. An athlete that finished 6th – 20th in the immediately preceding year's final Women's Professional Rodeo Association (WPRA) World Standings in the Barrel Racing and Breakaway Roping.
 - 1.1.2.1.3. PRCA/WPRA 6-20 athletes are automatically qualified to enter and compete in one (1) of the three (3) Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals with the payment of an eligibility fee.
 - 1.1.2.1.4. These fifteen (15) athletes will be distributed amongst the three (3) Regions to compete with no more than five (5) in each Discipline per Region.
 - 1.1.2.1.5. Each Athlete will select one (1) Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals to compete in. Athletes will select in order of the immediately preceding year's final PRCA/WPRA World Standings in the respective Discipline with a maximum of five (5) positions available in each Region.
 - 1.1.2.1.6. If a PRCA/WPRA 6-20 athlete had already competed in the Contender Tournament process prior to receiving Invited Contender Athlete invitation, they are not entitled to a refund of any fees paid in the Contender Tournament.
 - 1.1.2.1.7. If an Invited PRCA/WPRA 6-20 athlete declines his/her position and/or is injured and unable to compete, the invited position will not roll down to the next placing athlete.

- 1.1.2.1.8. These athletes are eligible for the Contender Bonus subject to parameters found in Section 6.
- 1.1.2.2. Other Invited Contender Athletes:
 - 1.1.2.2.1. As part of the unique nature of this competition, at its sole discretion which shall not be subject to challenge or appeal, Teton reserves the right to grant the opportunity to compete in the Contender Tournament and/or The American Rodeo to certain athletes and be eligible for the Contender Bonus, whether or not they have paid eligibility fees and/or competed in The American Rodeo Contender Tournament process.
 - 1.1.2.2.2. These athletes are eligible for the Contender Bonus subject to parameters found in Section 6.
- 1.1.3. "Top 5" Athlete
 - 1.1.3.1. Is a top 5 finisher from the immediately preceding year's final PRCA World Standings in the Bareback Riding, Saddle Bronc Riding, Bull Riding, Steer Wrestling, Team Roping (Heading and Heeling) and Tie-Down Roping.
 - 1.1.3.2. Is a top 5 finisher from the immediately preceding year's final WPRA World Standings in Barrel Racing and Breakaway Roping.
 - 1.1.3.3. "Top 5" athletes have an invitation to compete in The American Rodeo Round of 10
 - 1.1.3.4. "Top 5" athletes are not eligible for the Contender Bonus.
 - 1.1.3.5. If an athlete declines a "Top 5" invitation position into The American Rodeo, he/she is ineligible to compete in any further 2024 The American Rodeo competitions in the same Discipline, and he/she will not be eligible to compete within the Contender Tournament in that same Discipline seeking an opportunity to compete for the Contender Bonus. If said "Top 5" athlete had already competed in the Contender Tournament process prior to receiving a "Top 5" Athlete invitation, he/she is not entitled to a refund of any fees paid in the Contender Tournament.
 - 1.1.3.6. If a "Top 5" athlete declines a position and/or is injured and unable to compete, the invited position will not roll down to the next placing athlete.
 - 1.1.3.7. Should an athlete earn or receive a position(s) in the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals prior to receiving a "Top 5" invitation, that athlete's position(s) in the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals is vacated and will then be awarded to the next eligible placing athlete from same vacated method of advancement ("Drop-Down Contender") from that respective contender Discipline. If the Drop-Down Contender is already qualified into the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals, Teton will continue to work through the overall placings to fulfill the open position. Said "Top 5" athlete is not allowed to further compete in the Contender Tournament and is not entitled to a refund of fees.
- 1.2. In advancement situations, if a Contender athlete must draw out due to a medical or veterinary release before competition begins, a deadline to confirm attendance may be enforced by Teton. Said athlete will not be replaced by the next highest placing eligible athlete.

2. COMPETITION/ADVANCEMENT STRUCTURE FOR THE TIMED EVENTS:

- 2.1. The American Rodeo Contender Tournament will be divided into three (3) Contender Tournament Regions: Contender Tournament (Qualifying) Events West, Contender Tournament (Qualifying) Events Central and Contender Tournament (Qualifying) Events East. Overview of the advancement structure follows in this section. Each Discipline has unique circumstances and details specific to each Discipline, which are found in said Discipline's Competition Structure section of these Rules. If there is a discrepancy between information found in Section 2 and the individual Discipline's Competition Structure section of rules, the individual Discipline's Competition Structure section of rules supersedes.

- 2.2. An athlete is only awarded an automatic advancement position(s) and/or points towards the Contender Tournament Regional Standings on qualified times.
- 2.3. The American Rodeo Contender Tournament (Qualifying) Events:
 - 2.3.1. Are events that have been selected by Teton and/or its approved sanctioning bodies to provide advancement opportunities for athletes.
 - 2.3.2. Each Region will be assigned qualifying events per Timed Event Discipline that are specific to stated Region.
 - 2.3.3. Eligibility Fees (fees to compete) are Discipline specific. $400 per entry in Breakaway, Tie-Down and Steer Wrestling, $500 per entry in Barrel Racing and $750 per entry in Team Roping (subject to approval by Teton).
 - 2.3.4. Declaring A and B runs: Athlete must declare A and B runs before the Contender Tournament Qualifier starts. Athletes must enter twice at the same event to have an A and B run total in their Discipline standings, with the exception of entering once and getting an AA qualifier. (i.e., Athlete is automatically qualified with an AA position. Points cannot be added to AA spot.)
 - 2.3.5. There are two (2) different ways to earn advancement positions from the Contender Tournament Qualifying Events to the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals. (Team Roping Discipline is unique, refer to Section 4.3 for Team Roping advancement opportunities):
 - 2.3.5.1. Automatic advancement based on athlete's placing in a Contender Tournament Qualifier Event. The number of entries in the Contender Tournament competition at the qualifying event determines the number of automatic advancement positions available at the event. (See Figure 1). If there is a tie for the last automatic advancement position at a Contender Tournament Qualifying Event, all athletes tied for that position will earn automatic advancement.
 - 2.3.5.2. By their rank in the final Contender Tournament Regional Standings for the specified Regional Semi-Finals. Contender Tournament Regional Standings will be kept in each Region. Points will be awarded to the stated Regional Standings based on athlete's placing and the number of entries in the Contender Tournament competition at the qualifying event (See the Points Table in Figure 1).
 - 2.3.5.3. A minimum of ninety-five (95) Contenders (plus ties) will be issued an invitation to each Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals. This includes all automatic advancing Contenders with the remaining Contenders coming from the Contender Tournament Regional Point Standings. A minimum of ten (10) athletes in each Discipline in each Region will advance to the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals based on point standings even if the minimum 95 number of athletes has already been met by the automatic advancing Contenders.
 - 2.3.6. Automatic advancement positions and points for Contender Tournament Regional Standings are awarded specific to the stated Region of the Contender Tournament Qualifying Event.

- 2.3.7. No trading of qualification positions is allowed between regions. ie., a qualified athlete must compete in the specific Regional Semifinals and Finals in which he or she originally achieved qualification.

 - 2.6.2. Top four (4) placing athletes from The American Rodeo Round of 10 will advance to The American Rodeo Round of 4. If there are no qualified times, or not at least four (4) qualified times, any remaining positions will be filled by random draw amongst those in The American Round of 10 that have not yet advanced. No athletes drawn back into The American Round of 4 are eligible for the Contender Bonus regardless of if they were a Contender athlete.
- 2.7. The American Rodeo Round of 4
 - 2.7.1. There is one (1) way to be eligible to compete in The American Rodeo Round of 4:
 - 2.7.1.1. The top four (4) placing athletes in each Discipline from The American Rodeo Round of 10 will compete in The American Rodeo Round of 4.
 - 2.7.2. The American Rodeo Champion in each Timed Event Discipline will be determined based on the fastest qualified time in The American Rodeo Round of 4.

3. COMPETITION/ADVANCEMENT STRUCTURE FOR THE ROUGHSTOCK EVENTS:

- 3.1. The American Rodeo Contender Tournament will be divided into three (3) Contender Tournament Regions: West, Central and East. Contender Tournament (Qualifying) Events for the Roughstock Events will be a direct entry to the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals with the potential option of a Contender Tournament (Qualifying) Event, Contender Tournament Semifinals Redemption Round. Overview of the advancement structure follows in this section.
- 3.2. Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals and Regional Finals
 - 3.2.1. Each Region will hold a Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals and Contender Tournament Regional Finals.
 - 3.2.2. Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals:
 - 3.2.2.1. Format of the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals will be the same for each roughstock Discipline.
 - 3.2.2.2. A qualified ride is required for automatic advancement from the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals. In the occurrence there are not enough qualified scores to fill advancement positions, any remaining qualification spots will be filled based on buck off times in said Discipline, (longest ride time gets in first), and if buck off times are tied, the tie will be broken by random draw amongst tied Athletes.
 - 3.2.2.3. Athletes eligible to compete at the Contender Regional Semifinals:
 - 3.2.2.3.1. Athletes must pay a direct buy-in fee of $1,000 per entry. The entry fee will consist of a $500 deposit, which is non-refundable, and the balance of $500, which is due at said Regional Semifinals event.
 - 3.2.2.3.2. An athlete may enter one (1) time in each Discipline in each Regional Semifinals.
 - 3.2.2.3.3. The 6th – 20th ranked athletes from the immediately preceding year’s final PRCA World Standings in said Discipline.

- 3.4.2. Top four (4) athletes with the highest total score will advance to The American Rodeo Round of 4.
 - 3.4.2.1. If there is a tie for the last position, the tie breaker will be as follows:
 - 3.4.2.1.1. If the tie is between a Contender and a “Top 5,” the tie breaker will be awarded to The Contender.
 - 3.4.2.1.2. If the tie is between two (2) or more Contenders, the tied athlete with the highest total score in the Contender Tournament Finals will advance.
 - 3.4.2.1.3. If the tie is between two (2) or more “Top 5” athletes, the tie will go to the tied athlete with the highest ranking from the immediately preceding year’s PRCA World Standings in said Discipline.
 - 3.4.2.2. If there are not four (4) qualified rides in the American Rodeo Round of 10, any remaining qualification spots will be filled based on buck off times in said Discipline, (longest ride time gets in first), and if buck off times are tied, the tie will be broken by athletes' highest total score from the Contender Tournament Finals.
- 3.5. The American Rodeo Round of 4
 - 3.5.1. There is one (1) way to be eligible to compete in The American Rodeo Round of 4:
 - 3.5.1.1. The top four (4) athletes with the highest total score in each Discipline from The American Rodeo Round of 10 compete in The American Rodeo Round of 4.
 - 3.5.2. The American Rodeo Champion in each Roughstock Discipline will be determined based on the highest total score in The American Rodeo Round of 4.
 - 3.5.2.1. If There is a tie for 1st place, tie breaker will be as follows:
 - 3.5.2.1.1. The tied Athletes will compete again, on one (1) additional head, to determine the Champion. Athlete with the highest total score in the ride off wins the Championship. If still tied, the tied Athletes are named Co-Champions. If neither Athlete receives a score in the ride-off, the tied Athletes are named Co-Champions. Co-Champions are not eligible for the Contender Bonus regardless of if he/she is a Contender Athlete.
 - 3.5.2.1.2. If there are no qualified rides in the Round of 4, then all four athletes compete again. If no qualified rides result, the championship will be determined by buck-off times. Championships determined by buck-off times are not eligible for the Contender Bonus regardless of if he is a Contender Athlete.
 - 3.5.2.1.3. Ties for second or third place will be treated and reported as ties.

4. ADVANCEMENT STRUCTURE OF TIMED EVENT DISCIPLINES

4.1. Barrel Racing

4.1.1. Contender Tournament (Qualifying) Events

- 4.1.1.1. Advancement to the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals

- 4.1.1.1.1. An athlete/horse combination is considered an Individual Contender “Team” with automatic advancement and points being tracked per “Team”.
 - 4.1.1.1.2. An athlete may advance multiple times to a single or to multiple Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals so long as each advancement is earned as part of a separate “Team” (i.e. different horse).
 - 4.1.1.1.3. An athlete may enter a Contender Tournament Qualifying event multiple times as long as each entry is on a different horse.
 - 4.1.1.1.4. A horse may be used only one time (by one rider) in any Contender Tournament Qualifying event.
 - 4.1.1.1.5. If an athlete earns an automatic advancement in a Region, he/she must advance in said Region and will not be eligible to earn an advancement on that horse in any other Region.
 - 4.1.1.1.6. If a “Team” is in the standings of multiple Regions, the “Team” will only be awarded an advancement position in the Region where the Team is ranked the highest in the standings and said Team will not be awarded an advancement position in any other Region. All positions vacated by that “Team” will be filled by the next highest eligible athlete “Team” in the Region of the vacated spot.
- 4.1.2. Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals
- 4.1.2.1. Once in any Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals, an athlete may substitute horses as he/she advances between each level of competition. However, beginning with the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals, a horse may only compete one (1) time during each level regardless of the Region or the athlete riding the horse.
 - 4.1.2.1.1. For clarification, the two go rounds of the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals are considered one (1) level of competition so Athlete must ride the same horse in each go round of the Contender Regional Semifinals.
 - 4.1.2.1.2. For clarification, all three (3) Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals are considered one (1) level of competition.
 - 4.1.2.2. Format
 - 4.1.2.2.1. Two (2) full rounds with a separate Redemption Round.
 - 4.1.2.2.2. Run positions for the 1st go round will be randomly drawn. Run order for the 2nd go round will be reverse order of the 1st go round.
 - 4.1.2.2.3. Top ten (10) fastest times of the two-run aggregate of the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals will advance to the Contender Tournament Regional Finals.
 - 4.1.2.2.4. An athlete that did not advance to the Contender Tournament Regional Finals via the top ten (10), is eligible to enter the Contender Tournament Regional Redemption Round Race.
 - 4.1.2.2.4.1. The Redemption Round Race will be one (1) run.
 - 4.1.2.2.4.2. An Athlete can enter the Redemption Round Race one (1) time for each non-advancing run in the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals.

- 4.1.2.2.4.3. Fee to enter the Redemption Round Race is $1,000 per entry.
- 4.1.2.2.4.4. The Athletes with the three (3) fastest qualified times in the Redemption Round Race will advance to the Contender Tournament Regional Finals.
- 4.1.2.2.4.5. If there is a tie for the last advancement position(s) in the Redemption Round Race, the athletes' times on the two-run aggregate in the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals will break the tie with the fastest time advancing.
- 4.1.2.2.5. Ties for advancing from the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals will be broken by the athletes' fastest one (1) qualified time in either round of the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals. If still tied, the tie will be broken by mutually agreed upon run off or by a coin flip.
- 4.1.2.3. An athlete can only advance one (1) time from each Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals to each Contender Tournament Regional Finals.
- 4.1.2.4. If an athlete places 1st, 2nd and 3rd in the Redemption Round Race of the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals on multiple horses, the highest placing horse advances to the Contender Tournament Regional Finals and the next highest placing Athlete from the Regional Semifinals Redemption Round Race will advance to the Contender Tournament Regional Finals.
- 4.1.3. Contender Tournament Regional Finals
 - 4.1.3.1. The Contender Tournament Regional Finals will be composed of thirteen (13) Contenders – the top ten (10) placing athletes from the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals plus the athletes with the three (3) fastest qualified times from the Contender Tournament Regional Redemption Round Race.
 - 4.1.3.2. Format
 - 4.1.3.2.1. One (1) full round.
 - 4.1.3.2.2. Run positions will be randomly drawn.
 - 4.1.3.2.3. Times from the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals do not roll forward except for tie-breaker purposes.
 - 4.1.3.2.4. Top five (5) fastest qualified times from each of the Contender Tournament Regional Finals advance to the American Rodeo Contender Finals. If there is a tie for the last advancement position, qualified times (fastest time in either Semifinals go-round) from the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals will break the tie with the fastest of the tied athletes advancing. If still tied, the tie will be broken by mutually agreed upon run off or by a coin flip.
 - 4.1.3.3. An athlete can only have one (1) advancement position into the Contender Tournament Finals regardless of the horse he/she is competing on. If an athlete is in the top five (5) of more than one (1) Contender Tournament Regional Finals, said athlete will advance to the Contender Tournament Finals from the Region based on his/her placing in the Contender Tournament Regional Finals and Semifinals. The vacated position will roll down to the next highest placing athlete from the Region where the vacated spot occurred.
- 4.1.4. The Contender Tournament Finals

- 4.1.4.1. The Contender Tournament Finals consists of 15 athletes – the top five (5) placing athletes from each of the three (3) Contender Tournament Regional Finals.
- 4.1.4.2. Format:
 - 4.1.4.2.1. One (1) full round.
 - 4.1.4.2.2. Run positions will be randomly drawn.
 - 4.1.4.2.3. Times from any other rounds of competition do not roll forward except potentially for tie-breaker purposes.
 - 4.1.4.2.4. Top five (5) fastest qualified times in the Contender Tournament Finals advance to The American Rodeo Round of 10. If there is a tie for the last position, the tie breaker will go to the athlete that placed highest in his/her Contender Tournament Regional Finals. If still tied, the tie breaker will go to the athlete that placed highest in his/her Contender Tournament Semifinals average in his/her region. If still tied, tiebreaker will go to fastest time in the Semifinals.
- 4.1.5. The American Rodeo Round of 10
 - 4.1.5.1. The American Rodeo Round of 10 consists of ten (10) athletes – the five (5) contender athletes that advanced from the Contender Tournament Finals plus the “Top 5” finishers from the immediately preceding year’s final WPRA Barrel Racing World Standings.
 - 4.1.5.2. Format:
 - 4.1.5.2.1. One (1) full round
 - 4.1.5.2.2. Run positions will be drawn randomly within each of the two groups (Contenders and “Top 5”). The two lists will then be combined so that the run order alternates between a “Top 5” and a Contender beginning with a Contender. (i.e., Contenders draw at 1, 3, 5, 7, 9 and “Top 5” athletes draw at 2, 4, 6, 8, 10).
 - 4.1.5.2.3. Times from any other rounds of competition do not roll forward except potentially for tie-breaker purposes.
 - 4.1.5.2.4. The top four (4) fastest qualified times in The American Rodeo Round of 10 advance to The American Rodeo Round of 4. If there is a tie for the last position, the tie breaker will be as follows:
 - 4.1.5.2.4.1. If the tie is between a Contender and a “Top 5”, the tie breaker will be awarded to The Contender.
 - 4.1.5.2.4.2. If the tie is between two (2) or more Contenders, the tied athlete with the fastest qualified time in the Contender Tournament Finals will advance.
 - 4.1.5.2.4.3. If the tie is between two (2) or more “Top 5” athletes, the tie will go to the tied athlete with the highest ranking from the immediately preceding year’s final WPRA Barrel Racing World Standings.
 - 4.1.6. The American Rodeo Round of 4
 - 4.1.6.1. The American Rodeo Round of 4 consists of the athletes with the top four (4) fastest qualified times in the American Rodeo Round of 10.

- 4.1.6.2. Format:

 - 4.1.6.2.2. Run positions will be determined by random draw.
- 4.1.6.3. The one (1) fastest qualified time in The American Rodeo Round of 4 will be crowned The American Rodeo Barrel Racing Champion.
 - 4.1.6.3.1. If there is a tie for 1st place, tie breaker will be as follows:
 - 4.1.6.3.1.1. The tie goes in favor of the athlete with the fastest run from the Round of 10 to determine the Champion. If still tied, the athletes are named Co-Champions. Co-Champions are not eligible for the Contender Bonus regardless of if he/she is a Contender Athlete. Ties are all split with money from tied places being distributed evenly among tied athletes.
 - 4.1.6.3.2. Ties for any other places will be treated and reported as ties.
 - 4.1.6.3.3. Payout for tied places will be combined and split evenly between the tied Athletes.

4.2. Breakaway Roping, Tie-Down Roping and Steer Wrestling

- 4.2.1. Contender Tournament Qualifying Events
 - 4.2.1.1. Advancement to the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals
 - 4.2.1.1.1. An athlete may advance up to two (2) times to each Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals.
 - 4.2.1.1.2. If an athlete earns an automatic advancement in a Region, he/she must advance in said Region.
- 4.2.2. Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals
 - 4.2.2.1. Format
 - 4.2.2.1.1. Two (2) full rounds with a separate Redemption Round.
 - 4.2.2.1.2. Run positions for the 1st go round will be randomly drawn. Run order for the 2nd go round will be reverse order of the 1st go round. All A runs and single runs go first in the draw and all B runs go second in the draw.
 - 4.2.2.1.3. Top ten (10) fastest times of the two (2) head aggregate of the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals will advance to the Contender Tournament Regional Finals.
 - 4.2.2.1.4. An athlete that did not advance to the Contender Tournament Regional Finals via the top ten (10) or who did but has an additional Semifinals qualification position that did not advance, is eligible to enter the Contender Tournament Regional Redemption Round.
 - 4.2.2.1.4.1. The Redemption Round will be one (1) long go with a short go for the top ten (10).
 - 4.2.2.1.4.2. An Athlete can enter the Redemption Round up to two (2) times for each non-advancing run in the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals.
 - 4.2.2.1.4.3. Entry fee to enter the Redemption Round is $1,000 per entry.
 - 4.2.2.1.4.4. The athletes with the three (3) fastest times in the two-head aggregate in Redemption Round will advance to the Contender Tournament Regional Finals.

4.2.2.1.4.5. If there is a tie for advancement in the Redemption Round, the athletes' single fastest time out of either run in the Redemption Round will break the tie with the fast time advancing.

4.2.2.1.5. Ties for advancing from the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals will be broken by the athlete with the fastest one (1) qualified time in either round of the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals advancing. If still tied, the tie will be broken by a run/rope off.

4.2.2.2. An athlete can only advance one (1) time from each Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals to each Contender Tournament Regional Finals. If an athlete places twice in the top ten (10), the athlete's highest placing position will advance to the Contender Tournament Regional Finals. The next highest placing athlete from the Regional Semifinals aggregate will advance to the Contender Tournament Regional Finals.

4.2.2.3. If an athlete wins 1st, 2nd and 3rd in the Redemption Round of the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals, the next highest placing athlete from the Regional Semifinals Redemption Round will advance to the Contender Tournament Regional Finals. Tiebreaker goes back to the fastest time of either round in the Redemption Round.

4.2.3. Contender Tournament Regional Finals

4.2.3.1. The Contender Tournament Regional Finals will be composed of thirteen (13) Contenders – the top ten (10) placing athletes from the Contender Tournament Regional Semifinals plus the top three (3) Athletes from the two-head aggregate in the Contender Tournament Regional Redemption Round.

4.2.3.2. Format

- 6.3. Strict Athlete Adherence: Athletes must strictly comply with the above-mentioned rules in order to qualify and be eligible for the Contender Bonus. Any deviations therefrom can result in disqualification from eligibility or forfeiture of the Contender Bonus, as solely determined by Teton.

7. GENERAL RULES

- 7.1. For all purposes in connection with The American Rodeo, including, without limitation, qualification and eligibility for the Contender Bonus and all other events that are part of The American Rodeo, Athletes must strictly comply with all rules and policies as applicable to The American Rodeo including, without limitation, those contained in Sections 6.1 – 6.3 above; the General Rules below; all other provisions and policies contained herein; all other provisions of the Athlete Agreement, as all rules and policies that are posted in or around the venues, or otherwise announced by Teton. All determinations in connection with violations of any of the foregoing shall be made by Teton in its sole discretion and shall be final and not subject to challenge or appeal.
- 7.2. Honest Effort:
 - 7.2.1. Teton and its designated rodeo officials shall have the right to determine whether an athlete violates the Honest Effort Rule and to determine whether to apply one or more of the sanctions set forth below, in their sole discretion, which shall not be subject to challenge or appeal:
 - 7.2.1.1. Disqualification from the round in which the violation occurred and any remaining rounds of the Contender Tournament and/or The American Rodeo;
 - 7.2.1.2. Return of any and all prize money or prizes won in connection with the round in which the violation occurred and any prior rounds and/or events of the Contender Tournament and/or The American Rodeo;
 - 7.2.1.3. And prohibition from competing or participating in any future Contender Tournament and/or The American Rodeo related events.
 - 7.2.2. The following acts or omissions shall be deemed to be violations of the Honest Effort Rule with respect to the events set forth below:

- 7.2.2.1. Barrel Racing Discipline: In the Barrel Race, an athlete who fails to ride, using appropriate equipment, his/her horse through the electric eyes (unless The American Rodeo officials rule the athlete's horse refuses beyond his/her control) shall automatically be deemed not to have given an honest effort. Once the athlete has ridden his/her horse through the electric eyes, it is the sole responsibility of Contender Tournament and/or The American Rodeo officials to determine whether the athlete has given an honest effort. In making this determination, the Contender Tournament and/or The American Rodeo officials will consider whether the athlete has made a good faith effort to successfully complete the event and record a qualified time to the best of that Athlete's ability.
- 7.2.2.2. Breakaway Roping, Team Roping, Tie-down Roping, and Steer Wrestling Disciplines: In these timed events, an Athlete who fails to ride, using the appropriate equipment, his/her horse across the score line (unless The Contender Tournament and/or American rodeo officials rule that he/she was fouled leaving the box) shall automatically be deemed to have not given an honest effort. Once the Athlete has ridden his/her horse across the score line, it is the sole responsibility of Contender Tournament and/or The American Rodeo officials to determine whether the Athlete has given an honest effort. In making this determination, Contender Tournament and/or The American Rodeo officials will consider whether the Athlete has made a good faith effort to complete the event and record a qualified time to the best of his/her ability.
- 7.2.2.3. Bareback Riding, Saddle Bronc Riding, and Bull Riding: In Roughstock events, an Athlete who fails to ride, using appropriate equipment, his horse or bull out of the chute (unless Contender Tournament and/or The American Rodeo officials rule the livestock stalled within the chute or the Athlete was fouled coming out of the chute) shall automatically be deemed to not have given an honest effort. Specifically, the Bareback Rider must have his hand in the rigging and be seated on the horse until the inside shoulder of the horse crosses the plane of the chute gate; the Saddle Bronc Rider must have his feet in the stirrups, seat in the saddle and rein in his hand when the inside shoulder of the horse passes the plane of the chute gate; and the Bull Rider must have his hand in his bull rope with wrap taken and be seated on the bull when the inside shoulder of the bull crosses the plane of the chute gate. Once the Athlete has ridden the horse/bull out of the chute, it is the sole responsibility of Contender Tournament and/or The American Rodeo officials to determine whether the Athlete has given an honest effort. In making this determination, The American Rodeo officials will consider whether the Athlete has made a good faith effort to complete his/her ride to the best of his/her ability.

7.3. "Prohibited Conduct" includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- 7.3.1. Failure of an Athlete to fulfill contractual obligations associated with the Contender Tournament and/or The American Rodeo;
- 7.3.2. Cheating or attempting to cheat during any round of the Contender Tournament and/or The American Rodeo or any The American Rodeo related events;
- 7.3.3. Attempting to fix or improperly influence the results and/or final outcome of any round of the Contender Tournament and/or The American Rodeo or any The American Rodeo-related events;

- 7.3.4. Acting with the intent to affect the outcome of any round of the Contender Tournament and/or The American Rodeo or any The American Rodeo related events;
 - 7.3.4.1. Offers, confers, or agrees to confer any benefit on, or threatens harm to:
 - 7.3.4.1.1. A participant in the Contender Tournament and/or The American Rodeo or any The American Rodeo related events, to induce them not to use their best efforts; or
 - 7.3.4.1.2. An official or other person associated with the contest.
- 7.3.5. Acting in a threatening, intimidating, harassing or violent manner toward any persons;
- 7.3.6. Violation of the Athlete Agreement;
- 7.3.7. Violation of applicable law or regulations;
- 7.3.8. Violation of Sub-Section 7.4 (Livestock Welfare); and/or
- 7.3.9. Violation of Sub-Section 7.5 (Offensive Behavior).
- 7.3.10. Teton shall make the determination as to whether an athlete has engaged in any Prohibited Conduct, including, but not limited to, the conduct listed above and as set forth in Sub-Sections 7.4 and/or 7.5. Any Athlete who engages in any Prohibited Conduct shall be subject to any or all of the following, at the sole discretion of Teton, without waiver of any other rights and remedies under applicable law:
 - 7.3.10.1. Disqualification from the round in which the violation occurred and any remaining rounds of the Contender Tournament and/or The American Rodeo;
 - 7.3.10.2. Return of any and all prize money or prizes won in connection with the round in which the violation occurred and any prior rounds and/or events of the Contender Tournament and/or The American Rodeo; and
 - 7.3.10.3. Prohibition from competing or participating in any future Contender Tournament and/or The American Rodeo related events.
- 7.4. Livestock Welfare. Teton is committed to the extraordinary care of livestock. It has strict policies prohibiting the use of animal prods of any type (to include, but not limited to, sharp instruments, hotshots, other electric shocking devices, joy buzzers, or vibrators) during any Contender Tournament and/or The American Rodeo event or round of competition. Approved and designated representatives of the Contender Tournament's and/or The American Rodeo's general stock contractor may carry hotshots for use in the alleys, pens, and dock loading areas to facilitate movement of animals if there appears to be imminent danger to any humans or animals. Failure to adhere to these policies will result in breach of the Athlete Agreement.
 - 7.4.1. All Athletes along with their traveling companions/assistants (whether entered in the Contender Tournament and/or The American Rodeo or not) must comply with all Livestock Welfare rules and regulations as they pertain to their personal animals, the animals of the Contender Tournament and/or The American Rodeo's stock contractors, or any other animals with which he/she may come in contact. Failure to comply with these rules and regulations will result in breach of the Athlete Agreement and may result in criminal prosecution or citation if local and/or state animal welfare laws are violated.
- 7.5. Family Event; Offensive Conduct: All Athletes need to remain mindful that both the Contender Tournament and The American Rodeo are family-oriented events and will be broadcasted/streamed live. Athletes must not behave or comport themselves in a manner that is offensive to any social or ethnic groups and that will be appropriate for a family audience. Each Athlete understands and acknowledges that areas in and around the Arena floors will have multiple cameras and microphones that may or may not be visible and that all speech and behavior may be broadcast, recorded and/or displayed on screens at the venue, or elsewhere.
- 7.6. Officials, along with Teton, have the authority to enforce all rules.

- 7.6.1. The American Rodeo is represented, during live competition, by the Arena Floor Director and the Rodeo Producer. Their decisions on non-scoring, production, performance, and procedural issues are final.
- 7.6.2. Per the Athlete Agreement, all decisions of Contender Tournament Judges and The American Rodeo Judges are final. All scores and times, once calculated and approved by the Rodeo Secretary and the Judges are final.
- 7.6.3. Athletes may not approach the judges during the live event unless the judge initiates the conversation. Further, athletes may not attempt to intimidate, persuade, or harass judges in any way inside or outside of the Arena, including, without limitation, appeals for re-rides. Failure to comply will result in disqualification from any further rounds of The American Rodeo 2024 and potential disqualification of future events.
- 7.7. Back Numbers: Athletes must wear 2024 The American Rodeo Back Numbers at all times when competing at The American Rodeo. Back numbers will grant entrance and serve as a credential to access the Arena.
 - 7.7.1. Athletes advancing to The American Rodeo Round of 10 will be required to wear a back number when competing but will receive a credential to access the stadium.
- 7.8. Order of Events: The order of events for each round of competition will be posted in advance.
- 7.9. Attire and Patch Programs: Athlete will be granted the opportunity to wear or display patches of sponsors. Patches and Sponsorship inclusion must follow standard "rodeo display sizes" and must not be vulgar or offensive in any way.
- 7.10. Media and Press Expectations
 - 7.10.1. Athlete agrees to be available for media interviews, live event interviews, social highlights, and press requests during the days/evenings he/she is participating within The American Rodeo.
 - 7.10.2. Athlete agrees to take head shots, hard shots, and video sound bites upon arrival to his/her first round of competition.
 - 7.10.3. Athlete agrees to make good faith efforts to be available for public appearances, sponsorship activations, meet and greets, promotional activities, etc. to better promote the rodeo industry, western lifestyle, and The American Rodeo.
 - 7.10.4. American Rodeo Champions in any discipline may be requested and required to participate in the following promotional activity: interviews, photo shoots and promotional activities. Champions shall participate in any required scheduled interviews, photo shoots and promotional activities such as pre- or post-show press conferences, interviews, or rider meetings to promote The American if requested and appropriate travel stipend supplied as necessary.
- 7.11. Athlete Stipulations:
 - 7.11.1. Gender: There is no gender requirement for Bareback Riding, Bull Riding, Team Roping, Tie-Down Roping, Saddle Bronc Riding, Steer Wrestling, or Barrel Racing. All Breakaway Roping athletes must be female, as denoted on their birth certificate.
 - 7.11.2. Age: There is no general age requirement for timed events, however, there is an 18+ year age requirement for all Roughstock Disciplines. Minors shall be required to provide Teton with a duly executed Parental Consent in the form to be provided by Teton, prior to being permitted to compete.
